

SIGHTINGS: BETTINA POUSTTCHI FAMILY GUIDE

HOW DID YOU TRAVEL TO THE MUSEUM TODAY?

Plane

Train {All Aboard!}

Automobile

Maybe you walked , rode your bike  or flew on a magic carpet?

In the 1970s, some arts organizations began to relocate (move) to Flora Street because the highways surrounding downtown made it an easy place for people to access.

The Nasher Sculpture Center opened on Flora Street in 2003.

How do you think the land was used before it was a museum?

- A. Gas Station
- B. Parking Lot
- C. Restaurant
- D. Skating Rink

MEET ARTIST BETTINA POUSTTCHI.

(Say: Poose-chee)

She lives and works in Berlin, Germany. She is inspired by the history of a city and how it changes over time.

Can you imagine how these items located on Flora Street might change over time?

Streets

Buildings

Signs

When Bettina Pousttchi visited Dallas she was inspired by the drive-thrus (which are uncommon where she lives) and the history of the area.

Did you know that Flora and Ross Street were once home to gas stations and car dealerships?

Pousttchi has transformed Gallery II into a drive-thru.

What drive-thrus have you been to?

- Fast Food
- Cleaners
- Bank
- Pharmacy
- Car Wash

If you ordered a work of art and had it your way, right away what would you choose?

1. A supersized sculpture
2. A value meal of a drawing, painting and sculpture
3. A photograph with a side of ceramics
4. A portrait, hold the plaster

Draw your order in this space

